

Job Title: DevOps Engineer

Experience: Mid-level to Senior

Job Type: Full-time

Location: Copenhagen

Do you want to make a difference in the fight against cybercrime together with us? We are looking for a DevOps Engineer to join our highly motivated and close-knit software development team of 14 people. You probably think solving complex tasks is fun, and you thrive being able to contribute to the team.

About the job:

You will be part of the architecture team and will focus on maintaining and optimizing our cloud-based infrastructure and facilitating the deployment of new-tech. You will also be working on specific product initiatives when specific aspects of product teams need to be abstracted to be used by other teams as well.

In more detail, you will be:

- Performing and receiving code reviews daily
- Optimizing our build/deploy pipelines
- Maintain/update cloud compute
- Maintain good security posture in cooperation with internal security
- Ensure good resource utilization
- Planning and scoping larger initiatives alongside Product Tech Leads and Product Owners
- Participating in knowledge sharing activities like lightning talks and hands-on demos
- Researching and suggesting more efficient ways of solving our problems
- Staying on top of technologies and assessing potential new additions to our sanctioned stack.

As a team, we:

- Do periodic retreats with various social and tech-relevant events
- Constantly strive to improve our ways of working

About you:

You preferably have 5-10 years of work experience with most of the following:

- Our stack: Linux (Debian), Python, nginx, and relational databases (PostgreSQL)
- Kubernetes and Docker - containerization in general
- Cloud infrastructure (we use Google Cloud Platform)
- Infrastructure as code (we use terraform)
- CI/CD pipelines (we use Google Cloud Build)

- Monitoring/telemetry (we use Grafana)
- Configuration management (we use Puppet/Ansible)
- Git

We also highly value that you:

- Are open and eager to learn
- Have a resourceful and troubleshooting attitude
- Are structured and like to take over responsibility
- Have a healthy mix of pragmatism and ideology
- Are able to work independently as well as in teams – you will be doing both
- Can receive and provide respectful and constructive criticism
- Have good communication skills and command of English, both spoken and written

Working for us you will get:

- 5 weeks holiday plus another 5 “floating” days off each year
- Flexible hours and working from home - we believe in a positive work-life balance, so as long as the work gets done, we care less about when or where it's performed
- Health insurance, dental plan, a pension, plus life and disability insurance
- Great fair-trade coffee
- Healthy, varied lunches (incl. vegetarian and allergy options)
- Break rooms equipped with refrigerators, soft drinks, and fresh, organic fruit
- Shower facilities and subsidized weekly massages
- Company events for grown-ups and for families
- Mobile phone, laptop, and home Internet

How to apply:

To apply for this position, please send your CV to HR@csis.com. You are welcome to send us a cover letter as well, but this is not a requirement. We will be reviewing applicants on an ongoing basis. Should you need any further information, please contact Martin Lynge Hansen via phone +45 25242333.
